My husband's great aunt is an amateur genealogist, and she has sent me some handwritten records on the CHERRY FAMILY LINEAGE. She has them as far back as 1407 in Normandy, France when their name was "de Cherie". They were Huguenots and migrated to England. JEAN de CHERIE apparently dropped the "de" in his name after migrating to Northhamshire, as his sons were: John, Thomas & Richard CHERIE, living in N. Kilworth, Leistershire, Eng. Eventually the spelling was changed to CHERRY. I am suspicious of the records and am looking for verification.

According to her source, "Greer's Early Virginia Immigrants", page 65, JOHN CHERRY emigrated from North Kilworth, England to Norfolk Co., VA in 1637. He had 3 brothers: Arthur, Richard and William. His parents were THOMAS CHERRY and ELLEN POWNEY of North Kilworth, England. A branch of this CHERRY TREE (ISHAM CHERRY) moved to NC after the Revolution & eventually ended up in Hardin Co. TN. abt 1810. Isham Cherry's children: Eli, Noel, Harold, and William.

There are a lot more names and dates, but I'm a skeptic. Anybody know anything about any of this?

Marianne, I am so excited that the info I have on CHERRY could POSSIBLY be correct! I have a SAMUEL CHERRY who was a grandson of the JOHN CHERRY I mentioned who immigrated from England to Norfolk, Co., VA in 1637. Samuel's father was also named John. This Samuel Cherry had a will dated 1754 and had the following children: SONS: John, William, Cado, Charles, SAMUEL, Solomon, George, & Willis. DAUGHTERS: Elizabeth, Abigail, Mary, Rebecca, & Frances. Are one of these Samuel's YOUR Samuel Cherry? My husband's line is of Samuel Cherry's son, William.

Yes, please.....I would love to have more info & would be glad to share what I have. I will also try to find the book, "The Thigpen Tribe". Thanks for the tip.
 Anxious for your reply.

Dear Karen,

Looks like your husbands direct line and my fathers connect with Samuel, because ours died in 1754 also. Dad and I are descendants of your William's brother Solomon Cherry, born in 1737. Samuel's wife was Gatsay Llewellyn and Solomon's wife was Clary Council. I believe they were in North Carolina. what do you have on their locations. I am trying to wrap up my report cards for the closing of high school, since I am a teacher, or I would type more information tonight. Send me your address and I will mail you a copy of what I transcribed from "The Thigpen Tribe"

Super! A match! I've left my address to you on E-mail. As far as locations, I have no info on Solomon, except his wife's name, (which you just provided), and that he is our William's brother. I have our WILLIAM CHERRY killed in the Rev. War. After his death, his wife _____? took their sons: Isham, Daniel, Joel, William, Norman and Harrell and moved to North Carolina. After William's wife died, apparently in N.C., the sons moved their families "westward". ISHAM (my husband's descendant) moved to Hardin County, TN. about 1810.

Do you have the info from Samuel [d 1754] back to John de Cherie (1407) in France? I'd be happy to copy what I have and send it to you if you'd like to see it.

THANKS SO MUCH!

Regina Cherry

Regina Cherry never dreamed she would work at Colmer Middle School when she attended the school as a child. She has been the library assistant for two years and loves her job. Cherry is a breast cancer survivor. She found out she had breast cancer at the same time she began working at Colmer where she discovered a support group among the teachers and employees. Before becoming the library assistant, she worked as a crossing guard for 10 years at Cherokee Elementary School. Her favorite author is Carolyn Keene, the author of the Nancy Drew series. Cherry enjoys watching her son play baseball at Pascagoula High School and spending time with him and her husband of 26 years. The lifelong resident of Pascagoula enjoys fishing, particularly for redfish. She also works with her mother, who owns Gerrie's Wigs and Boutique in Pascagoula, helping cancer patients find wigs.
